One of the most useful tools in Photoshop is the selection tool. In fact, one of the steps to creating a graphic is selecting an area on a photo or a graphic and moving it around on the computer screen. Finding and selecting an area is easy with Photoshop. This chapter shows you how to select different types of items in your image. In Chapter 4, you selected a graphic called `napkin` and then learned how to modify it. If you recall, you saw that you were able to change the background color to a color you defined with a color picker. Now you'll look at how to select a color and then work with it as you manipulate an image. ## Selecting a Background Color You're probably familiar with the Windows start menu. When you select an item from this menu, you can select a color in the menu bar as a background color for your menu. You can have a similar effect with Photoshop. To use the `_Colors_` tab, shown in Figure 3-4, choose Window >

Even if you never think about editing images, you probably have to open Photoshop one time or another to organize the images in your account.

In the following list we describe in detail the features that will make you feel that Photoshop is a necessary part of your life. You will use Photoshop to do many different things. 1. Reduce image size and quality

Generally speaking, there are two ways to reduce the size of an image: Reduce the number of pixels: To do this, you will convert the image into a different file format. To do this, you will convert the image into a different file format. Reduce the number of pixels and also reduce the file size: For this, you will compress or reduce the quality of the image. In the following graphic, you can see how you can reduce the quality and file size at the same time. It is important that you know how to reduce an image since the services that host your content, such as Imgur, MakeUseOf, etc. demand that all images should be smaller than 1024 pixels in width and 1024 pixels in height. 2. Create Photo Retouching If you are a photographer, you probably come across a photo with flaws that you would like to remove. To fix these small issues, you can use Photoshop. With Photoshop you can also create your own recipes. 3.

Create Photo Restoration As we mentioned previously, Photoshop can be used to reduce the size and quality of a photo. However, it is also a software that helps you get rid of stains, make the image appear cleaner, remove blemishes, wrinkles and scars, reduce blur, reduce the lens flare, recover damaged photos, repair photos that are taken on different types of devices, etc. 4. Add Filter effects Photoshop allows us to add lots of effects, such as soft focus, polaroid, vintage, and many more to our photos. To add a filter, click on Filter > Effects > Edit Filters > kinds of filters, read our article titled How to Create a Night Sky In Photoshop 5. Create Photo Manipulation Although Photoshop can be used to retouch photos, it also allows you to turn your pictures into something else. For this, you will need to open the Actions panel (Click on the little gear icon in the panel) and select Image > Animate > Actions. From this panel a681f4349e

Q: PHP MYSQL Order By What im trying to do is get the data from my database in the same order as it appears in my database. The Order is: More Edited - Later At a later date Never Edited This is what I am trying to do but of course it is not working:

$r = mysql_query("SELECT *

FROM comments ORDER BY com_ed_date DESC"); A: The order in your result array is not what you are expecting. If you use LIMIT to select only the top 50 and sort the array, you will see the order that your data appears in the database. $r = mysql_query("SELECT * FROM comments ORDER BY com_ed_date DESC LIMIT 50"); // loop through the result while($row = mysql_fetch_assoc($r)) { // do something with the result } Sen. Carl administration's pursuit of a nuclear deal with Iran has given it flexibility to impose sanctions against that nation. "What will be the effect if the Congress enacts the [Iranian Freedom and Support Act] or other tough sanctions? Now with our fingerprints on the [nuclear deal] we can put sanctions on the Iranians," Levin told reporters. He was responding to a question on the impact of Congress's approval of the Iran Nuclear Agreement Review Act, a measure that aimed to strengthen enforcement of Iran's compliance with the nuclear agreement it signed in July. Levin, the chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said the law "strengthens the position of Congress over the president on this issue.

ADVERTISEMENT "It does not weaken the position of the president," Levin added. "It just gives Congress a little more leverage." However, he said if Congress were to ratify a new agreement with Iran — something the administration has not yet publicly committed to — that would weaken the authority of the president. Congress has 60 days to either formally approve or reject the nuclear deal between Iran and six world powers and has begun debating it. The White House has been pushing the agreement, saying it would prevent Iran
